THE STOCK MARKET

Irregular Opening With Sensational Fluctuations.

Advance in People's Gas-Fractional Gains in Rallway Shares-Sugar Leads in the Downward Movement American Issues Strong and Active in London-Cousols Firmer.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.-The Stock Market opened irregular today. In some quarters of the market the fluctuations were sensational. This was notably true of People's Gas, which had a wide opening, selling from 108 to 110, or an extreme advance of 33-4 points. St. Paul, Missouri, Northern and Union Pacific opened at fractional gains. There was a big batch of seiling orders encountered and first prices were soon sharply shaded Opening London prices this morning were 1-8 to 3-8 under New York parity, but later the market hardened, with Americans becoming strong and active. Consols were 1-4 firmer at 97 3-8 and the Bank of England did not change its rate of discount.

In the way of news bearing on the mar ket this morning, it was reported that the Erie will issue $35,000,000 of collateral trust bonds to finance the Pennsylvania Coal Company purchase. Some wild reports concerning People's Gas, obviously the work of manipulators, were circulated. Missourl Pacific's gross for the third week of December increased $73,000. There is a pretty well settled belief that important changes will be made in the Brooklyn Rapid Transit directorate in

ACTUATED BY REVENGE.

Divorced Wife Accused of Conspiracy to Kill Her Former Husband. CONCORD, N. H., Dec. 27 .- Mrs. Carrie M. Huntoon, twenty-six years old, one of the city's best musicians and a popular young woman, was arrested last night harged with conspiracy to murder Walter C. Huntocu, who was her hustand for six years and from whom she was divorced last October. Intense jealousy coupled with a spirit of revenge led her to plan a tragic

Last Monday she went to Boston and at the Union station accessed a young man evidently out of work, who was a total stranger to her. She asked him if he wanted to earn a dollar, and upon his replying in the affirmative asked him to replying in the affirmative asked him to get a man to "put a man out of the way" for her. The young man, who was William Henry Dutton, of 47 Linden Street, Derehester, Mass., made her an evasive at wee, and went home and told his father of the conversation. His father at once sent him to the police authoriles in Boston, and they in turn notified City Marshal Locke, of this city.

Meanwhile Mrs. Huutoon had written an urgen, letter to Dutton telling him to Marshal Locke and Assistant Marshal Rand were concealed inside the state house, where they could observe all the proceedings. Mrs. Huntoon handed her companion a loaded revolver, a sealed envelope, which she said contained a $5 bill as part payment for the job, and another letter containing a decoy letter, which was to be given to Huntoon in order to get him out of his house and into a favor-able place for the carrying out of the

Mrs. Huntoon then started for home and Dutton remained to report to the police. They accompanied him to Mrs. Huntoon's home, where the city marshal concealed himself close beside the door while Dutton rang the bell. When Mrs. Huntoon came to the door and stepped outside Dutton told her that he had lost the decoy letter and could not find Huntoon's way. letter and could not find Huntoon's house.

Mrs. Huntoon told him the number and pointed in the direction in which the house lay. As she did so the police efficer arrested her. She realizes her situation and does not deny her share in the at:

ington. All of them are on the alert to make themselves available to strangers who are on sightseeing bent, and as a gon-eral proposition the guides "make a good thing of it." Especially is this the case with the thirteen guides who have the privilege of operating in the big Capitol building. There is no place in Wshington that possesses greater attraction for the average visitior than the building where the national lawmakers hold forth. Moreover, there are just as many people shown through the Capitol when Congress is not in session as there are when Congress is assembled.

The business of taking large parties through the Capitol has become a fine art with the thirteen guides, and a party of ten will be rushed through the building on an average of thirty minutes. The guide always brings them back to the starting point. The one place in the Capitol, however, that the sightseer is rarely ever shown is the crypt, which is in the basement in the direct centre of the building.

A RECEIVER APPOINTED.

The Old Town Bank, of Baltimore, Closes Its Doors.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 27.—Several of the city, asked for a receiver for that institution last evening and Roger T. Glil, counsel for the bank, was appointed. The announcement created consternation among the business people in the vicinity of the bank, as it was one of the oldest and most reliable in the city. Up to 3 o'clock deposits were received, notwithstanding that there was a run o nthe bank at the time. Immediately after the doors were closed the executive committee of the clearing house held a meeting at which the condition of the bank was investigated.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—Despite a report which was published in last evening's papers to the effect that the mill between Jim Jeffries and Gus Ruhlin, which is scheduled to be decided in Cincinnation February 15, was off, the fact remains that the mill is still on. Billy Brady assured a reporter that the fight would positively be held and that both pusilists will at once begin training for assembled.

Up to within the past year the Capitol guides acted independently of one another. Each guide was for himself, and his eagle eye was ever strained, looking for their small-like speed may be interested to learn that a brand-new excuse can be concected for late arrivals or cent nardy departures. In future irritated travelers who still cherish a love of justice must sake if they are on a weary train before volleying forth their unkind maledictions at the heads of biameless officials. Trains, like human beings, are more easily wearied the older they get, and the girld, darling motion which they found assy to accomplish in the heydey of youth solves flown as "e years creep on lime". Nowadays, however, the guides—that is, they would take to crutches or a grandfather's stick, but as no satisfactory crutch has been devised for railway rains they were in a back garden raising fullips.

It may sound strangely to hear persons talk about a "fired steel aske" or "fatigued iron rail," but that sor or "fatigued iron rail, but the stranger as quickly as the ear can detected in Cheminat on The whole, the fight stones in the same hall always hold that then the same hall always hold the stones in the same hall always hold the tendown as the east of the elastic state where it is no st waich, looking somewhat anxiously at his waich. Precisely at 12 o'clock, Miss Fox came in attended by Mr. Levy and with the actress was her naid. Miss Fox was dressed in black silk, and wore a white ostrich boa. With the maid and Mr. Livingston, as witnesses, the ceremony proceeded.

A carriage was in waiting outside and of $150,006 is unimpaired. The losses are attributed to the unauthorized acts of the cashier, Theodore Wilcox, who, it is charged, loaned large amounts to Isaac Robinson, the packer, who failed recently for $800,000. Money was also invested in the United Milk Producers' Association which is also in trouble.

These facts became public several days ago and many of the depositors becoming alarmed withdrew their money today. Fearing that the run would be continued. ville stage with the purpose, it is said, of returning shortly to comic opera.
